Memorial Day. Honoring Service and Sacrifice. Though widely observed since the late 1860s, Memorial Day did not become a federal holiday until 1971.

Memorial Day: Honoring Service and Sacrifice

Like all worship services, a Funeral or Memorial Service should convey a sense of inter-connectedness and progression in achieving its purposes. Here is the basic order I often use for both Funeral and Memorial services. Certainly this order is open to modification to suit personal preferences.

WHEN A LOVED ONE DIES PLANNING A MEMORIAL OR FUNERAL SERVICE

A memorial program is distributed to all the attendees of the memorial service so they know exactly what will happen during the event. This sets the expectations of those attending as to the progression of the service and the time frame for the event.
