Vow of Silence - University of North Texas

During a three-day vow of silence, Capt. Robert MacArthur had one of the most important conversations of his life. While on a silent retreat with 25 other people during his fourth year of college at Saint Louis University, Missouri, in 2006, his spiritual director, a Catholic priest, was the only person to whom he was allowed to speak. He also was the first person MacArthur told that he was gay.
