Americans are nationals and citizens of the United States of America. Although nationals and citizens make up the majority of Americans, some dual citizens, expatriates, and permanent residents, may also claim American nationality. The United States is home to people of many different ethnic origins. As a result, American culture and law does not equate nationality with race or ethnicity, but ...

Democracy (Greek:  $\delta\epsilon\mu\kappa\rho\alpha\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu\alpha$ , literally "rule by people"), in modern usage, has three senses – all for a system of government where the citizens exercise power by voting. In a direct democracy, the citizens as a whole form a governing body and vote directly on each issue. In a representative democracy the citizens elect representatives from among themselves.
