Thomas Hickey (hanged on June 28, 1776) was a Continental Army soldier in the American Revolutionary War, and the first person executed for "mutiny, sedition, and treachery." Born in Ireland, he came to America as a soldier in the British Army and fought as personal assistant to Major General William Johnson in the Seven Years' War, but deserted to the other side when the Revolution broke out.

Historical Inquiry & Informational Reading . Reading about and understanding history is critical in the digital age. Students need to understand that regardless of whether you're investigating something that took place 200 years ago or 2 minutes ago, you need to ask: who wrote this and published this? can the document be trusted? what's the perspective? what are we missing? what's the context?
